

WE KNOW-HOW

Company Profile

A story of innovation

Our brand reputation and perception are the result of our longtime project built on research, reliability and sustainability.

That is why today GMP is the leading European manufacturer of flatwork ironers in the segment of small and medium commercial laundry.

Ironing made smart

GMP is committed to developing innovative solutions aimed to simplify the ironing process. Always keeping a close eye on the latest technology, we have focused on a very specific product and provide dedicated ironing solutions to meet the demand of the most various business segments.

A deeper look into GMP:

R&D

GMP team constantly monitors field statistics and gathers inputs from the market. We develop new concepts and test the most modern materials to increase ironers efficiency for the customer satisfaction.

Exclusivity

The whole GMP range grants several distinctive commercial and technical advantages for concretely supporting your offer: performance, reliability and sustainability are the pillars of each GMP ironer.

Flexibility

GMP offer the widest range of flatwork ironers to satisfy the demand and the specific requirement of the most various segments: from commercial to industrial.

Commitment

GMP have strongly invested in a professional team and efficient tools for a rapid sales and technical support.
90% of the issues are solved during the first contact.

GMP numbers

A few data to help you understand the commitment and inexhaustible passion that guides our team in its work.

A number is not just a number:

35

years of specialist know-how in manufacturing and design of flatwork ironers

1600

units manufactured per year with consolidated market shares all over the world

80

Countries where we export worldwide.

GMP is represented by the national primary importers with a capillary distribution network

∞

our commitment in assuring an unmatched service level and a distinctive quality of the equipment

We are close to you

We have organized GMP as a Customer focused company. GMP ironers are entirely designed and built in our factory in Italy for the maximum control all over the production process. We are structured to guarantee a fast and competent assistance in the product choice and after-sales wherever you are.

